

In order to continue offering you services at a reasonable cost, we need to operate as efficiently as possible. Because we have a large number of low-volume clients, one area of our operation that is relatively inefficient is the monthly billing of members and subsequent processing of their payments.

We are now able to streamline this process by charging the cost of your reports to a major credit card. Not only will this enhance our operating effectiveness, but it will also eliminate the need for you to mail us a check every month. You can review your invoices online.
